A Wreath of Roses by Elizabeth Taylor - Goodreads
A Wreath of Roses is number 392 on the Virago Modern Classics list, and was first published in 1949. Of her writing, fellow Virago-publi I originally purchased Elizabeth Taylor's A Wreath of Roses in order to participate in a group read, but was unable to wait, and started it almost as soon as I received a copy.

Elizabeth Taylor (1912-1975) was born and educated in Reading. After leaving school she worked as a governess and later in a library. She lived much of her married life in the village of Penn in Buckinghamshire.
Elizabeth Taylor: A Wreath of Roses The Mookse and the ...
A Wreath of Roses was an excellent reminder to me that the time to do so is now. A Wreath of Roses is Taylor's fourth novel (the other three coming in 1945, 1946, and 1947!). The novel is set in its contemporary time, the first years following World War II, and the horror still pervades even the most mundane or idyllic of settings.
