Interlanguage fossilization - Wikipedia

Interlanguage fossilization is a phenomenon of second language acquisition in which second language learners develop and retain a linguistic system, or interlanguage, that is self-contained and different from both the learner's first language and the target language. This linguistic system has been variously called interlanguage, approximative system, idiosyncratic dialects, or transitional dialects.

Fossilization | TeachingEnglish | British Council | BBC

Fossilization refers to the process in which incorrect language becomes a habit and cannot easily be corrected. Example Many advanced level learners who have Spanish as an L1 do not distinguish between he' and she'.
