Wayne: An Abused Child's Story of Courage, Survival, and ...

In the autobiography, Wayne by Wayne Theodore (2003), Wayne is a boy from Massachusetts who was abused mentally and physically by his father. The abuse was so bad that his father nearly killed Wayne when he was only 6 years old. Wayne's mother did nothing to improve the situation, as she was abused too. She saw the kids getting abused and did nothing about it. His mother often fled Wayne: An Abused Child's Story of Courage, Survival, and ...

I was abused as a child with constant beatings and verbal abuse yet those are issues that are resolved when you are mature enough to seek professional help. They are too arrogant and might actually prefer to be damaged goods or at least portray the life of a "victim". Wayne is probably the brutal of the brothers and is an insincere individual. He has left a wake of destruction in his path and

Wayne's story touched my heart deeply and made me realize how life-altering and psychologically destructive child abuse is. We are never really free from the pain of abuse although, as in Wayne's case we can rise above the pain and reach out to others.
